

Compliance Declaration

Regulation 18 of The Building (Registered Building Control Approvers etc.) Regulations, requires declarations made by dutyholders to be given to the Building Control Approver.

Client
Definition:	"Client" means any person for whom a project is carried out.
Declaration:	The Client is declaring that the work described in the Initial Notice is complete and is compliant with the applicable requirements of the Building Regulations.

Principal Designer
Definition:	"Principal Designer" means the designer appointed under regulation 11D to perform the duties of a principal designer under The Building Regulations 2010 (as amended).
Declaration:	The Principal Contractor (or Sole Contractor), is declaring that they have fulfilled their duties as a Principal Contractor under Part 2A (dutyholders and competence) of the Principal Regulations.

Principal Contractor
Definition:	"Principal Contractor" means the contractor appointed under regulation 11D to perform the duties of a principal contractor under The Building Regulations 2010 (as amended).
Declaration:	The Principal Designer (or Sole or Lead Designer) is declaring that they have fulfilled their duties as a Principal Designer under Part 2A (dutyholders and competence) of the Principal Regulations.

Please complete and return the declarations forms below to info@c3designapprovals.co.uk and the Registered Building Inspector managing your project.

Following receipt of the declarations we will arrange to undertake a final inspection of the works.

A Final Certificate cannot be given until all declarations have been received. Please note that an Initial Notice ceases to be in force if the building or part of the building is occupied or is substantially complete within the prescribed time and no Final Certificate has been given. We therefore appreciate your cooperation to return this form to us as soon as reasonably practicable.
